This morning we welcome back Rev. Sally McShane and we are grateful that she is here to lead us in worship. Sally will be back for the next 2 Sundays as well.

Thank you to David Vander Westhuizen for reading scripture this morning.

Next Sunday is Thanksgiving Sunday. We will going to Deltaview after our service to sing some favourite hymns with the residents there.

“Once the soul awakens, the search begins and you can never go back. From then on, you are inflamed with a special longing that will never again let you linger in the lowlands of complacency and partial fulfillment. The eternal makes you urgent.” J. O’Donohue
